

Visit The Swedish Holocaust Museum

Sweden has both an interesting and complex relationship to the Holocaust and the second world war. Officially, Sweden remained outside the war and declared itself neutral. At the same time, however, the country made concessions to Nazi Germany while also becoming a refuge for people fleeing persecution and death. Through personal stories, life journeys and eyewitness accounts, this compelling history is brought to life at the Swedish Holocaust Museum.

Opening hours

- Tuesday: 11 am–5 pm
- Wednesday: 11 am–8 pm
- Thursday–Sunday: 11 am–5 pm
- Monday: Closed

Please visit the website to view opening hours on public holidays.

Recommended visit duration: 60 minutes.

Admission

Admission fee: 90 SEK.

Children and youth up to 19 years old: free admission.

School visits

- Free admission for school groups. Advance booking is required.
- After 5 PM on weekdays, on weekends, and during holidays, the fee is 900 SEK for guided school tours. All other visits remain free for students under 19. Advance booking is required.

Private group tours

- Cost SEK 1,100–2,200 depending on the day and time. Admission fee 90 SEK per person. Group size: 15–30 participants, depending on the exhibition. Contact our booking service for questions and reservations.

08–519 553 60 | bokning@museumforintelsen.se

Guided tours

Free guided tours are available on weekends, during school holidays, and in the summer. For up-to-date information, visit the museum's website.

Audio guide

Audio guides are available for some exhibitions. For details, visit our website.

Museum shop

The museum has a well-stocked shop, primarily featuring books and personal testimonies related to the Holocaust. The shop has the same opening hours as the museum.

Contact & Bookings

General enquiries: 08-519 553 60 | info@museumforintelsen.se

Bookings: bokning@museumforintelsen.se

Accessibility

- A designated parking space is available outside the museum entrance for vehicles with a disability permit.
- Prams/strollers are allowed inside the museum, with parking available in the entrance area.
- Breastfeeding and bottle-feeding are welcome in the museum lounge.
- Magnifying glasses and torches can be borrowed from the museums shop.
- No hearing loop or portable hearing aid system is available.
- An accessible toilet is available.
- All public areas are accessible for wheelchairs, walkers, and prams/strollers.
- Pets are not allowed. Guide and assistance dogs are welcome (please present certification upon arrival).

Photography & Filming

Photography and filming for personal use are permitted (tripods not allowed).

Media enquiries: bilder@shm.se

Travel & Parking

- Nearest underground station: S:t Eriksplan (approx. 5-minute walk).
- Several bus routes also stop nearby.
- Stockholm Central Station: Approx. 15-minute walk.
- Parking: Street parking and car parks are available nearby, though availability may vary depending on the time of visit. A drop-off point is located close to the museum entrance.

Location

The Swedish Holocaust Museum is located at Torsgatan 19, Stockholm on the 5th floor (one level up from Torsgatan 19 entrance). Access is via the street entrance and then by lift or stairs.

Website & further information

<https://museumfortelsen.se/en/>

The website and information are available in both English and Swedish.